

QPHS Year 8 PSHCE Curriculum Map

Half term	Title	Unit summary	Assessment
1	Independence &amp; Aspirations (Booklet 1)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Managing online presence</li> <li>• Digital and media literacy including online relationships</li> <li>• Media / social media influencers</li> </ul>	Ipsative Assessment is used in PSHCE. This assessment method focuses on students assessing their own personal progress and growth against a set of I can statements.
2	Autonomy &amp; Advocacy (Booklet 2)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Stereotypes, prejudice and discrimination</li> <li>• Diversity, inclusivity and equality</li> <li>• Protected Characteristics as defined by the Equality Act 2010</li> <li>• British values</li> </ul>	Ipsative Assessment is used in PSHCE. This assessment method focuses on students assessing their own personal progress and growth against a set of I can statements.
3
4	Choices &amp; Influences (Booklet 3)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Drugs, alcohol, nicotine (smoking and vaping) awareness</li> <li>• Contraception</li> <li>• Sexually Transmitted Infections</li> <li>• Resisting peer influence</li> <li>• Online choices and influences including gaming and gambling</li> </ul>	Ipsative Assessment is used in PSHCE. This assessment method focuses on students assessing their own personal progress and growth against a set of I can statements.
5	RSHE Relationships, Sex, Health Education (Booklet 4)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Healthy relationships</li> <li>• Relationship boundaries &amp; consent</li> <li>• Sexting (Youth Produced Sexual Imagery)</li> <li>• Upskirting</li> <li>• Managing conflict</li> </ul>	Ipsative Assessment is used in PSHCE. This assessment method focuses on students assessing their own personal progress and growth against a set of I can statements.
6			